EXTRACTS of private LETTERS from LONDON, dated APRIL 7 and 8, to Perſons in NEW-YORK and PHILADELPHIA.

WITH the moſt anxious and deep concern, I ſit down to give you ſome account of the bitter things that are meditated againſt America and thro' her againſt England itſelf, and that conſtitution, by which it has long been diſtinguiſhed among the nations, as a land of freedom and happineſs, and an aſylum againſt tyranny and oppreſſion——A diſtinction, alas! that now ſubſiſts no more! and muſt be for ever loſt,—unleſs kind Providence ſhould interpoſe, to ſave us from that ſlavery and darkneſs, which has well nigh overſpread the face of the whole earth. America, the laſt reſort of retiring Freedom, is now to be invaded, and the fugitive driven from her peaceful receſſes there, that ſo ſhe may find no reſting place on this ſide Heaven.

A plan of deſpotiſm and arbitrary power, has inceſſantly been purſued, during the preſent reign; thro' all the miniſterial changes and manœuvres, THAT has ſtill been the grand object in view; and may explain all thoſe intricate movements of government, which otherwiſe appear quite myſterious and unaccountable; eſpecially with regard to the colonies, it may account for that obſtinate perſeverance in meaſures palpably inconſiſtent with every principle of the Engliſh conſtitution, of juſtice, and of common ſenſe; which have been attended with almoſt infinite expence, trouble and difficulty, both to the colonies and Great-Britain itſelf; when at the ſame time a plain, eaſy and certain way to peace, harmony and proſperity lies ſo open before us, that none can miſtake it, and yet offers itſelf in vain. An abſolute, arbitrary government, has infinite charms for the multitude of haughty luxurious paraſites and flatterers that ever ſurround a throne, and hope to ſhare with it, in tyrannizing over the people, and rioting on their ſpoils. No wonder that ſuch as theſe ſhould prevail on a young Monarch to be pleaſed with, to countenance, and adopt their plan. Unlimitted-power is generally a moſt deſirable object, eſpecially to youth and inexperience—and few are diſtruſtful of themſelves, or imagine that it would be unſafe in their hands.

In England almoſt every obſtruction to the execution of this plan, is removed: places of high truſt and importance, are beſtowed upon thoſe who will act in ſubſerviency to the views of the court; thoſe who might impede thoſe views, are diveſted of power, and diſabled from any effectual oppoſition—Experience has ſhewn, that the penſions and places in the gift of the Crown have as great an influence, on the Nobility, whoſe eſtates might ſet them above dependance, as upon common men—for luxury is boundleſs, and can render the poſſeſſor of the greateſt eſtate as needy as a beggar, and, as vulnerable to the influence of a bribe. As for the Commons, thoſe natural guardians of the liberties and properties of the people, tho' there are many worthy men among them, who do their utmoſt to ſtem the torrent of corruption, and preſerve their country, and zeal for its ſervice, the greateſt abilities and integrity, are all rendered entirely uſeleſs by a corrupt majority of miniſterial tools, who vote juſt as they are directed: This Houſe, therefore, which uſed to be the bulwark of the people's ſecurity, ſerves now only to give the form or appearance of legality to acts of real tyranny and oppreſſion, by which they are deprived of their liberty and property. A great majority of the houſe are returned by little venal Boroughs, bribed by the nation's own money, to elect ſuch men as the Miniſtry chuſe, and afterwards command to vote as they pleaſe. A friend well acquainted with the internal ſtate of Great-Britain, aſſures me, "that many boroughs in the kingdom have ſcarce 30 perſons qualified to vote for a repreſentative in parliament; and that all who are qualified are under the influence of ſome Nobleman, or Squire, who, if he has no perſon of his own family to put in, transfers the election, or rather nomination, to ſuch adventurers as chuſe to purchaſe a ſeat as a means of climbing the hill of preferment. In ſome places, there is not even the ſhadow of an election or town-meeting. The ſovereign, bailiff, or rather returning officer, with two or three burgeſſes, go privately to the ſeſſion houſe, and in a moment name ſuch a one, as duly elected, without the appearance of a candidate.

"What a farce are ſuch tranſactions, when the liberties of the people are thus played away at a game, wherein a corrupt government, and an ambitious covetous landlord are only gainers!" "All things being thus ripe in England for the open introduction of arbitrary power, nothing ſeems to have prevented it, but the ſtruggles of the Americans to preſerve their liberties. Theſe ſtruggles have been doubly mortifying to the miniſtry, as they have thereby been not only prevented from levying a revenue upon America, but from executing their ſcheme, in its full extent upon England. And unleſs that ſcheme be very ſoon executed, it is in danger of being blown up entirely; for matters have riſen to ſuch a criſis, the uneaſineſs and diſtreſs of the nation are become ſo general, that ſome violent commotion ſeems inevitable, and near at hand; and if a revolution ſhould happen, and the projected eſtabliſhment of deſpotiſm in England fail, it would probably be fatal to thoſe who have attempted to introduce it. The moſt strenuous efforts therefore will now be made, both by force and fraud, to reduce the Americans to a conformity with the meaſures of the miniſtry, who are enraged and diſtracted at the obſtructions they meet with from that quarter.

I therefore earneſtly warn you to firmneſs and vigilance; every art will be uſed, both to intimidate, and to deceive you: may God direct you to be wiſe and faithful to yourſelves and to your country, and crown your endeavours with ſucceſs. You have every thing at ſtake that can be dear to reaſonable creatures; your freedom, your property, your poſterity, your honour. The very miniſtry who are ſtriving to enſlave you, in ſpight of themſelves, both honour and fear you; but if they ſucceed againſt you, will deſpiſe and ſpurn you.

About a week ago an act of Parliament of a moſt extraordinary kind, to ſhut up the port of Boſton, was paſſed in a moſt extraordinary manner, being ſmuggled through the Houſe, in a few days only from its introduction. The evidence before the Privy Council was ſuppreſſed; the agents refuſed a hearing at the bar; and no member for Boſton or America in either Houſe. Nor had the merchants and manufacturers in England, who will be deeply affected by the execution of this act, any proper notice of it, or opportunity to remonſtrate againſt it. Indeed it is openly ſaid, that many a thouſand pounds were iſſued from the Treaſury to obtain a majority in the Houſe, and hurry it through before there ſhould be time for oppoſition: So that when a body of merchants, trading to Boſton and America, waited on Lord North, with a requeſt that a petition might be heard againſt the bill, before it paſſed into a law; they had the mortification to find they were too late, and that the bill had already paſſed. As his Majeſty has, by the act, a conditional power to ſuſpend its operation, in caſe the tea deſtroyed at Boſton ſhould be paid for, the merchants offered Lord North £. 19 000. or a ſecurity to the India Company, to pay for the tea, if that ſuſpenſion of the act might be procured from his Majeſty. But theſe offers were refuſed, and the merchants went away much diſſatisfied—— as thinking people are in general, againſt the proceeding of the Miniſtry, eſpecially in reſpect to this law, and the manner of getting it paſſed, which was with as much privacy and haſte as poſſible, ſo that it is hardly yet known in the manufacturing towns which will be hurt by it. It is expected to raiſe great clamour and uneaſineſs as ſoon as it comes to be generally known, and felt, by the labouring people, and the trade, the ſtoppage of which it is imagined, in a few months, will convince the Miniſtry they have acted wrong.

Another new bill, as extraordinary as the Boſton bill, only more general in its operation, is in agitation, in the Privy Council; and like the Boſton bill it is intended to be ſmuggled through the Houſe. God grant it may be ſtopped in its progreſs, or defeated in its deſign. It is expected here that America will be ſurpriſed or frightened into a compliance with it, by the intended alarming clauſes in it, and the ſpirited manner of enforcing it.

God give you vigilance, fortitude, and wiſdom to avoid the ſnares laid for you, and enable you to eſcape them.

General Gage is appointed Governor and Commander in Chief of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, with very extenſive powers. Under him are to be a ſet of officers, appointed by the Miniſtry, to be made Counſellors, and enforce the parliamentary laws, with the (apparent) conſent of the people.

In ſhort, every art will be uſed to deceive you, and either cheat or frighten you out of your freedom and property: However, I can aſſure you the commanders have private orders not to fight, unleſs they can provoke you to appear the aggreſſors,—nay they have orders not to commence hoſtilities, without further orders. But how ſoon that reſtriction may be taken off, God only knows; nor do I think that it was from any regard to juſtice, or tenderneſs to you, that ſuch a reſtraint was laid; but purely from the fear of the conſequences of ſanguinary orders; therefore I think if you are firm and prudent, you have no occaſion at this time, to fear any tragical conſequences from a refuſal to be taxed by the Britiſh parliament, who have really no right at all to tax you;—not that I would perſuade you to this refuſal merely upon a ſuppoſition, that the miniſtry will not proceed to hoſtile and ſanguinary meaſures—for my opinion is, that there is nothing too abſurd or wicked for them to do; but if they ſhould proceed to ſuch meaſures, it will be better for you to die than ſubmit to them: However, as your cauſe is juſt, and all the world muſt ſee that you were injured and oppreſſed, your oppreſſors will be condemned by all the world, both at home and abroad; and if you are but firm and prudent in your oppoſition, fear not but Providence will interpoſe in your behalf, and raiſe you up friends to ſupport and aſſiſt you. Some of the greateſt and wiſeſt, as well as beſt men in England, are already on your ſide, and will ſtand by you; your enemies have, nothing but mere power, unjuſtly obtained, and applied, to ſupport their cauſe; reaſon and juſtice are altogether againſt them; they therefore ſtand on ſlippery ground, and totter in their ſtations. Lord Camden, exerted himſelf nobly in the Houſe of Lords, in your favour.—He told them, the Boſton bill would be productive of a train of evils, and that they would certainly have cauſe to repent it. Great care is taxen to prevent copies of his ſpeech from getting to America, as well as to deceive you by falſe intelligence. Every TOOL OF POWER in America, will be called upon, and furniſhed with means, to miſlead you by a miſrepreſentation of facts, and giving a falſe turn and colouring to every thing that it concerns you to know. Six hundred pounds per annum, are paid to writers of falſe intelligence; and letters as well as news papers, that might give you ſuch intelligence as the miniſtry deſire to conceal from you, are all ſtopped.

It is given out, that ſevere meaſures are only intended againſt Boſton, to puniſh their refractory conduct; but depend upon it, if they ſucceed againſt Boſton, the like meaſures will be extended to every colony in America; they only begin with Boſton, hoping the other colonies will not interpoſe. But you are all to be viſited in turn, and devoured one after another. You may depend upon my intelligence—my office gives me acceſs to the principals, concerned in the meaſures, and I think it my duty to warn the innocent againſt the wicked devices that I know to be meditated againſt them. It behoves the colonies TO BE UNITED, in their intelligence, councils and meaſures; it is a matter of the laſt importance to them, to ſtand by and ſupport one another; the moſt favoured can only expect to be laſt devoured. The miniſtry are determined to try your metal to the utmoſt. MANSFIELD and BUTE are ſuppoſed to be the prime directors, and to influence the royal ear as they pleaſe. The ſpoils of England are inſufficient to ſupport the luxury of the minions of power, they have fixed their voracious appitites upon the poſſeſſions of the Americans, and intend to make a prey of them, in defiance of reaſon and juſtice, of the charters of kings, and the divine laws of nature. Depend upon it, every colony is to be ſubdued into a ſlaviſh obedience to the tyrannical impoſitions of Great-Britain; nothing leſs will ſuffice, nothing leſs is intended. After the ſubjection of Boſton, and perhaps all the New-England governments, New Jerſey and New York, are to be next in courſe; and they talk of taking away Penn's charter. Look to yourſelves, exert all your faculties to the utmoſt; your virtues will be put to a ſevere trial, and if they are not genuine and well founded, they will not ſtand the teſt.

Alas how is my ſoul ſhock'd at the preſent ſituation of England, my native country—a great, a generous, and late a happy people—but now how changed, how fallen! The men who are really wiſe and good, deprived of all opportunities of acting—The poor and middling people ruin'd and oppreſſed—the rich, loſt in luxury and diſſipation,—a ſet of weak and wicked men, miſguiding the reins of government,—the people tax'd to death without mercy—placemen and penſioners without number, &c.

Many of the officers on the intended expedition againſt Boſton and America, have nobly thrown up their commiſſions, and refuſeed to fight againſt their brethren in the colonies, without a juſt cauſe; and it is expected the ſoldiers will deſert in multitudes, from a mere ſenſe of honour and juſtice.

APRIL 8.

News is juſt now arrived, by a private hand, that the diſcontent of the people has ſo far prevailed, that orders are ſent to unman the fleet, or at leaſt that it ſhould not ſail till further orders. I hope the news will prove true.

The SCOTS in the Houſe of Commons have been very great enemies. I think it would be but juſt in the Britiſh to withhold every farthing due to them in that town, which I am told is very conſiderable, eſpecially to the city of Glaſgow. Indeed I think as the port is ſhut up, the whole debt due from them to Great-Britain ſhould be ſtopped, and repriſals made by every means in your power. The preſervation of England itſelf and her excellent conſtitution, require it of you.

Concordia parvæ res crescunt.

AMERICA has never seen a more critical Period than the present. The Stamp-Act, with all its train us Consequences, portended less Evil to this Continent, than the present gathering Storm.

When I consider the determined Resolution of Parliament to enforce their pretended Right of INTERNAL TAXATION, and reflect that the free-born Colonists, who have extended the British Empire over this once savage Land, will sooner die, than surrender the Privileges of Englishmen—I tremble for the Consequences. My heated Imagination anticipates all the Horrors of a civil War, and foresees these flourishing Provinces deluged with the unnatural Bloodshed of our Brethren and Fellow-Subjects.

In this alarming Situation of Affairs, methinks I see every Brow contracted into a serious Gloom, and every thinking Man earnestly enquiring, "What is to be done?"

Nothing can be entered upon by honest Men, with Spirit and Resolution, 'til they are first convinced of the Justice of their Cause. Let us then, without Prejudice, enquire, whether the present Struggles of AMERICA are defensible on Principles of Equity? If we are wrong, let us with Honour give up, before Force extorts a Submission; if we are right, let us act like true Patriots, and hold it out to the last, prefering one Hour of virtuous Liberty to a whole Eternity of Bondage.

The original Source of Contention, from which every particular Act of Opposition has sprung, is reducible to this simple Question. Has the Parliament of GREAT-BRITAIN a Right to tax AMERICA internally? I presume they have not. Two perfect Rights can never interfere: if they have a just Right to demand our Property, we cannot in Justice withhold it; and if they have a Right to take from us One Penny without our Consent, for the same Reason they have a Right to the Whole. From which this Consequence is demonstrably evident, that WE have no Property at all, but are the VASSALS of a British House of Commons, holding all our Possessions by their gracious Forbearance, who have a Right at Pleasure, to take WHAT, WHEN, HOW MUCH, and in ANY MANNER they please. Or, in a Word, I may say with Mr. Locke, "What Property has any Man in THAT, which ANOTHER has a Right to take from him?"

It being proved, that the Parliament has no Right to tax America internally, it follows, that their Claim is founded only in their superior Strength. What Name do we assign to that Man, or Body of Men, who demands our Property without any Right, intending to prosecute the Claim with an armed Force? I blush to mention it, and shall only say, that the Man who demands my Money with a Pistol at my Breast is commonly called a Robber; and that no Proposition in Euclid is more capable of Demonstration, than that SUCH a Man has as good a Right to the Money in my Pocket, as the HOUSE OF COMMONS to tax us without OUR Consent.

In this View of the Matter, we are justified by the Constitution, by Reason, by Nature, yea, by God himself, in opposing, by every prudent Measure, the Payment of every such Demand. Heaven approves the generous Struggle. We are only contending for our natural Rights, and that Liberty wherewith God has made us all free. The CAUSE we are embarked in is good, and if any of the subordinate Means used have been rash, the Blame of them lies at the Door of these who, by Oppression (which will make a wise Man mad) have hurried the loyal Americans unadvisedly into them.

We are therefore reduced to this Dilemma, either to acknowledge ourselves Tenants at Will to the House of Commons, or resolutely oppose this Claim, by every prudent Measure.——What are the prudent Measures? I answer, that all the Americans should UNITE, firmly resolved to stand by one another, even to Death. One great Soul of Harmony should animate this whole Continent, and dispose each one to consider an Injury offered to any Part as offered to himself.——Hapless BOSTON! that firmest Bulwark of American Liberty, is doomed to be the first Victim at the Altar of Ministerial Vengeance. Shall WE stand by indifferent Spectators, because we are spared? Surely, No! The free-born Soul of every genuine Patriot resents the guilty Thought, and resolves to stand or fall with these firm Defenders of our common Rights. To enforce this UNION more, give me Leave to observe, that New-York and Philadelphia are in the same Predicament with Boston; and what is Charles-Town [illegible] either? Have not A L L obstructed the [illegible] of one unconstitutional British Act of Parliament? And where is the mighty Difference, between destroying the Tea, and resolving to do it, with such Firmness as intimidated the Captains to a Return? Besides, will not every Province applaud the Bostonians, with [illegible] Commendations of their Zeal for AMERICAN LIBERTY? I humbly hope, they will act so far consistent with themselves, as to resent the Treament offered to that Town, tho' it was offered to every other One. The contrary Conduct would be ungenerous, cruel, and contrary to the true Interest of the Whole.

Why are the Bostonians destined for the first Sacrifice? Not because they are most guilty; but, because the Ministry would fondly DIVIDE the Provinces—divide and destroy—An Attempt to punish all at once, might UNITE ALL. If they ever can subjugate the free Spirit of New-England (which may God forbid) that Instant the Iron Hand of Tyranny will begin to stalk over these Provinces with gigantic Strides, laying the Fruits of our Industry. Where gay Fields now smile, be[illegible] in the yellow Robe of full-eared Harvest, soon [illegible] Sterility frown over the uncultivated Earth. [illegible] in vain would arise, and in vain would Showers [illegible] for who would be industrious, when others [illegible] the Fruit of his Labour? After the Subjugation of Boston, New-York, and Philadelphia, our Turn would be next. Methinks I see our Courts of Justice removed—our Harbour blockaded—Navigation stopt—our Streets crowded with Soldiers insulting the peaceable Inhabitants, and raising Provisions to a starving Price—and, after a little Time, the now flourishing Charles-Town reduced to a neglected Plain.

Rise Indignation! Rise just PATRIOTISM, and EVERY PUBLIC VIRTUE! to the Aid of our much injured Country. Let us convince the World, that Britons will be Britons still, in every Age and Clime. Let us instantly join our Sister-Colonies, and resent the Treatment offered, by every possible Means, whilst our united Opposition can avail. Let us heartily unite in some well-digested GENERAL PLAN that cannot fail to operate to the early Relief of our Brethren in Boston, now actually suffering in the Common Cause of American Liberty. Let us begin by abolishing all Parties and Distinctions—abandoning Luxury and Pleasure—and establishing OECONOMY. Let us nobly determine to make a willing Sacrifice of our private Interest to this glorious Cause, this Cause of infinite Importance. Let us enter into solemn Resolutions, not to import any British Goods (a very few necessary Articles excepted) and determine firmly and strictly to adhere to them, till the Privileges of Boston are restored—the Tea Duty repealed—and the Right of internal Taxation given up. Let us (if we are driven to that extreme Necessity, and nothing less can restore us to our constitutional Freedom) even desist to export—in which Case it will be expedient that we determine not to distress each other by Suits, and apply to the Gentlemen of the Law to decline Business. Let us endeavour to make the Union amongst ourselves, as well as with our Sister Colonies, as perfect as human Means can render it. "By UNITING we stand, by DIVIDING we fall." I foresee many Inconveniences that will arise from every Measure we can pursue, but I maintain it, they are infinitely short of what would follow on our giving up the Point in Dispute. If the Parliament's Claim of internal Taxation be established, either by our Consent, or by a military Force, that Moment we are transformed into SLAVES—all our Property at the absolute Disposal of the House of Commons. Death itself is an Event devoutly to be wished, in Comparison of such a State. Let us then act wisely, of two Evils choose the least—JOIN with our Sister-Colonies in a determined proper Opposition to Tyranny, resolved rather to die the last of American Freemen, than live the first of American Slaves.

CHARLES-TOWN, JUNE 13.

MR. Guthrie, in his Geographical Grammar, speaking of the Conſtitution of England, quotes M. Mezeray, the French Hiſtorian, as ſpeaking to an Engliſhman, "We had "once in France the ſame Happineſs and "the ſame Privileges as you have—OUR "LAWS WERE THEN MADE BY REPRESENTATIVES "OF OUR OWN CHOOSING, therefore OUR MONEY "WAS NOT TAKEN from us, but GRANTED *by us. "Think NOTHING, Sir, TOO DEARLY to maintain theſe "precious Advantages; if even there ſhould be Occaſion, "venture YOUR LIFE and ESTATE, rather than baſely "and fooliſhly ſubmit to that ABJECT CONDITION to "which you ſee us reduced."

Our laſt Advices in Reſpect to the Diſpoſition of the Creek Nation of Indians, are very favourable. According theſe, they are gone out from all Quarters to hunt, and to one Party to War againſt the Chactah's. Three Headmen from every Town in the Nation, were appointed to meet at Little-Tallaſee, on the 24th ult. to receive Sir James Wright's Talk, upon the Subject of giving Satisfaction for the Murders committed laſt Winter by ſome Coweta's, in which they all ſeemed ready to acquieſce. There is not, according to our Accounts, the leaſt Ground to believe that the Cherokees would have joined the Creeks had they been diſpoſed for War.

The Inhabitants of the Town of Salem, have reſolved not to ſell, or let any Houſe or Lodgings, or otherways countenance, any Perſons inimical to the juſt Liberties of America, that may remove thither in Conſequence of the Boſton Port-Act.

By Capt. Mallory, who arrived here laſt Tueſday, in 20 Days from Virginia, we were informed, that the Boſton Port-Act had been received at Williamſburg on the 23d ult. by Expreſs from Philadelphia, together with Letters from ſeveral Committees—that the General Aſſembly had met—and that ſome ſpirited Meaſures were intended to be purſued.

The General Aſſembly of this Province, were prevented meeting here laſt Tueſday, by an unexpected Prorogation, on that Day, to the 2d of Auguſt next.

The Brigt. Charlotte, with about 140 Slaves from Sierra Leon, bound for Georgia, put into this Port laſt Thurſday, in Diſtreſs.

On Friday laſt another Veſſel arrived here from Virginia, in eight Days, with a Packet containing Letters and Papers, tranſmitted by a Committee lately appointed there, relative to the preſent Situation of Affairs in America. The firſt Step the Houſe of Burgeſſes in that Colony took, after receiving the Boſton Port-Bill, was to paſs a Vote, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

"Tueſday the 24th May, 14th Geo. III. 1774.

"This Houſe being deeply impreſſed with apprehenſions "of the great dangers to be derived to BRITISH AME-"RICA, from THE HOSTILE INVASION of the city of "BOSTON in our ſiſter colony of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, "whoſe commerce and harbour are, on the 1ſt day of "June next, to be ſtopped by an armed force, deem it "highly neceſſary that the ſaid 1ſt day of June be ſet "apart, by the members of this Houſe, as a day of FAST-"ING and HUMILIATION, and PRAYER, devoutly to "implore the divine interpoſition, for averting the heavy "calamity which threatens deſtruction to our civil rights "and the evils of civil war; to give us one heart and "one mind, firmly to oppoſe, by all juſt and neceſſary "means, every injury to AMERICAN RIGHTS; and that "the minds of his Majeſty and his Parliament may be in-"ſpired, from above, with wiſdom, moderation and juſ-"tice, to remove, from the loyal people of AMERICA, all "cauſe of danger from a continued purſuit of meaſures "pregnant with their ruin.

"ORDERED therefore, That the members of this "Houſe do attend in their places, at the hour of ten in "forenoon, on the 1ſt day of June next, in order to pro-"ceed with the Speaker, and the Mace, to the church in "this city, for the purpoſe aforeſaid: And that the Rev. "Mr. Price be appointed to read prayers, and preach a "ſermon ſuitable to the occaſion.

"ORDERED, That this Order be forthwith print-"ed and publiſhed.

"By the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

GEORGE WYTHE, C. H. B."

Whereupon His Excellency the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, immediately diſſolved the General Aſſembly. That occaſioned the following Aſſociation to be entered into, which was ſigned on the 27th, by Eighty-nine Members of the late Houſe of Burgeſſes. And the 1ſt Day of June was obſerved as a Day of Faſting, &c.

"AN ASSOCIATION, &c.

"We His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the late Repreſentatives of the good People of this Country, having been deprived, by the ſudden Interpoſition of the executive Part of this Government, from giving our Countrymen the Advice we wiſhed to convey to them in a Legiſlative Capacity, find ourſelves under the hard Neceſſity of adopting this, the only Method we have left, of pointing out to our Countrymen ſuch Meaſures as, in our Opinion, are beſt fitted to ſecure our deareſt Rights and Liberty from Deſtruction, by the heavy Hand of Power now lifted againſt NORTH-AMERICA. With much Grief, we find, that our dutiful Applications to Great-Britain, for Security of our juſt, antient and conſtitutional Rights, have not only been diſregarded, but that a determined Syſtem is formed, and preſſed, for reducing the Inhabitants of Britiſh America to Slavery, by ſubjecting them to the Payment of Taxes, impoſed without the Conſent of the People or their Repreſentatives; and that in Purſuit of this Syſtem, we find an Act of the Britiſh Parliament lately paſſed, for ſtopping the Harbour and Commerce of the Town of Boſton, in our Siſter Colony of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, until the People there ſubmit to the Payment of ſuch unconſtitutional Taxes, and which Act moſt violently and arbitrarily deprives them of their Property, in Wharves erected by private Perſons, at their own great and proper Expence; which Act is, in our Opinion, a moſt dangerous [illegible] deſtroy the conſtitutional Liberty and Ri[illegible]rth-America. It is further our Opinion, th[illegible] its importation into America, is char[illegible]ty, impoſed by Parliament, for the Purpo[illegible] Revenue, without the Conſent of the P[illegible] not to be uſed by any Perſon who wiſhes [illegible]aſtitutional Rights and Liberty of Britiſh Amer[illegible]d whereas the India Company have ungenerouſly attem[illegible]d the Ruin of America, by ſending many Ships loaded with Tea into the Colonies, thereby intending to fix a Precedent in Favour of arbitrary Taxation, we deem it highly proper, and do accordingly recommend it ſtrongly to our Countrymen, NOT TO PURCHASE OR USE ANY KIND OF EAST-INDIA COMMODITY WHATSOEVER, except Salt-Petre and Spices, until the Grievances of America are redreſſed. We are further of Opinion, that an Attempt made on one of our Siſter Colonies, to compel Submiſſion to arbitrary Taxes, is an Attack made on all Britiſh America, and threatens Ruin to the Rights of all, unleſs the UNITED Wiſdom of THE WHOLE be applied. And for this Purpoſe, it is recommended to the Committee of Correſpondence, that they communicate with their ſeveral correſponding Committees, on the Expediency of appointing DEPUTIES from the SEVERAL COLONIES of BRITISH AMERICA, to meet in GENERAL CONGRESS, at ſuch Place ANNUALLY, as ſhall be thought moſt convenient; there to deliberate on thoſe GENERAL MEASURES which the UNITED Intereſts of AMERICA may from Time to Time require.

"A tender Regard for the Intereſt of our Fellow-Subjects, the Merchants, and Manufacturers of Great-Britain, prevents us from going further at this Time; moſt earneſtly hoping, that the UNCONSTITUTIONAL PRINCIPLE of TAXING the Colonies, without their Conſent, will not be perſiſted in, thereby to compel us, againſt our Will, to AVOID all commercial Intercourſe with Great-Britain. Wiſhing them our People free and happy, we are their affectionate Friends, the late Repreſentatives of Virginia.

The 27th Day of May, 1774."

By Capt. Peter Bachop from St. Auguſtine, we learn, that on Tueſday laſt arrived off that Bar, with Proviſions for the Garriſon, the Snow Swallow, Capt. M'Clea, in 42 Days from Cork: That when Capt. M'Clea left Cork, the Troops for North-America had not yet ſailed, but it was ſaid were to depart the Friday following, i. e. on the 29th of April.

On Thurſday laſt Mr. Keating Simons was married, to Miſs Sarah Lewis, only Child of Mr. Sedgwick Lewis.

This Day and not before, ſince the 1ſt Day of June, the Elements ſeem diſpoſed to be compoſed, and promiſe fine Weather.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, APRIL 19, 1774.

WHEREAS His Majeſty, by His Royal Inſtruction, dated at ST. JAMES's, the 3d Day of February, 1774, has thought proper to eſtabliſh new Orders and Regulations for the future Diſpoſal of his Lands in this Province, excepting to ſuch reduced Officers and Soldiers as Lands are directed to be granted to by his Royal Proclamation dated October 7th, 1773, but has, nevertheleſs, been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to ſignify, That it is not his Intention that thoſe Perſons who have hitherto obtained Orders in Council, on Warrants of Survey, for Lands in America, ſhould be precluded, by the ſaid Inſtruction, from carrying thoſe Orders and Warrants into Execution, conformable to the Directions contained therein, or, that any Claim to a Grant for Lands, founded on any antecedent Step that can, in Equity, give a Title to ſuch Grant, ſhould be thereby precluded:

I DO HEREBY GIVE PUBLIC NOTICE THEREOF to all Perſons concerned, and the ſeveral Officers in this Province are hereby directed to carry the ſaid Warrants and Orders into Execution, that Grants may be paſſed for the ſame: But,

That the new Regulations, directed by the ſaid Inſtruction, may not be impeded, ALL PERSONS are hereby required to carry the ſaid Grants through the ſeveral Offices within Three Months from the Date hereof,

By Order of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor,

JAMES SIMPSON, C. C.
